CG 6502-C* advised on 3/10/62, that GUS ALEX and [redacted] ALEX, were in ALEX's apartment. ALEX asked [redacted] if she deposited her check and [redacted] replied in the affirmative and told ALEX her check was only $85.95 which was for nine working days.

Informant further advised that in the early evening of 3/10/62, ALEX expressed an interest in learning the twist. Informant stated that ALEX in the presence of [redacted] was practicing the twist in his apartment.

CG 6502-C* further advised that on 3/10/62, EDDIE VOGEL and NATHON LADON joined [redacted] and ALEX at ALEX's apartment. ALEX stated to VOGEL, "When [redacted] asked [redacted] if she knows GUSSIE and [redacted] she said no". VOGEL replied, "She didn't say nothing." LADON said, "I know she didn't, she didn't answer them". ALEX then replied, "BUTCH you told me that she said no." VOGEL then said, "You believe me. Listen, go from here." ALEX replied, "No, I'm going what he tells me but I think she can get into trouble by saying no." VOGEL then replied, "Well you ask her again because she's starting to think a little bit. She said that when they asked her anything about GUS she didn't answer them". ALEX then stated, "Well they talked to her about an hour, she must have said something."

The above discussion undoubtedly relates to the interview with [redacted] VOGEL, which was conducted by SAs [redacted] of the Chicago Office on 3/8/62. During this interview [redacted] was asked by the Agents if she was acquainted with GUS ALEX and [redacted] and her reply is what apparently concerns ALEX and VOGEL. It is to be noted that [redacted] refused to answer any questions concerning ALEX and VOGEL and referred the Agents to her attorney. b6 b7C

Informant further advised on 3/10/62, ALEX told VOGEL that he had dinner with CURLY the other night. CURLY is undoubtedly MURRAY HUMPHREYS, Chicago Top Hoodlum.

Informant further advised on 3/10/62, VOGEL and ALEX engaged in a discussion concerning cleaningof their respective apartments. VOGEL stated that he just had his apartment redecorated and ALEX stated that he was planning on getting his apartment redecorated in the near future. ALEX mentioned to VOGEL that he was getting a new chair, which waschemically treated,that it would not stain, and related that he was getting this chair from Marshall Field.

Informant further advised on 3/10/62, that ALEX mentioned that [redacted] was in town and asked LADON to verify this. LADON stated that she was. [redacted] is believed [redacted] LADON and is believed to reside in New York.

VOGEL mentioned to ALEX on 3/10/62, that he had just bought a set of dishes which cost him $10,000. He told ALEX that he was building a new cabinet in his living room to put them in. When questioned by ALEX as to whether he really paid that much for the dishes, VOGEL replied, "Some people buy diamonds don't they?" ALEX then replied, "How could you complain that business is no good and you goand spend ten here and ten there."

CG 6502-C* further advised on 3/10/62, that VOGEL and LADON entered into a discussion concerning the 58 karat diamond bracelet that they had previously discussed. ALEX asked him about the bracelet and VOGEL told him not to buy it. VOGEL said that he had at appraised and it was only worth from $7,500 to $10,000. ALEX asked VOGEL why didn't he take it to Trabert and Hoeffer for an appraisal. VOGEL told ALEX that he did not have to take it there and that the place he took it to could duplicate it, the work and all, for about $10,000. ALEX asked VOGEL to let him look at it again before he gave it back but VOGEL replied, "I'm not going to give it back, he ain't in town". VOGEL stated, "A guy like [redacted] he breaks it up, he buys it and breaks it up, understand, and you can't believe him. He's a liar". It is believed that the [redacted] referred to by VOGEL is [redacted] During this discussion LADON interrupted and mentioned the name [redacted] but ALEX stated, "No not him." It is believed that the [redacted] mentioned by LADON is actually [redacted]

During the discussion concerning the bracelet ALEX mentioned "that [redacted] is he got beautiful stuff. He's got merchandise that is merchandise". It is possible that the person referred to by ALEX above is [redacted] a well known [redacted] and who was known to be at [redacted] during the week of 3/5 through 9/62, when ALEX was apparently in Miami. In discussing [redacted] EDDIE VOGEL also mentioned that "[redacted] is not around and that nobody is around."

This informant further advised that ALEX mentioned to [redacted] that a man who resides on the same floor as he does in the apartment was observed by him at the Fontainebleau Hotel. [redacted] replied that, "He must have left after you (ALEX) did because I saw him in the elevator the day after you left."

The informant further advised that VOGEL invited ALEX [redacted] to his apartment the following day, 3/11/62, for dinner. He told ALEX that he would arrange for dinner and while at ALEX's apartment he had LADON call [redacted] at the [redacted] who apparently was to be [redacted] for this dinner.

The informant further advised that ALEX told VOGEL that "RIP" (SAM ALEX) was in town and that he has the shingles. VOGEL told ALEX to bring SAM with him for dinner at his apartment. b6 b7C

ALEX mentioned to LADON that he had talked to [redacted] wanted to know if he, LADON, had wrecked the car while he had it. It is believed that the [redacted] referred to by ALEX is [redacted] who frequently loans automobiles to ALEX and VOGEL.

Informant advised that VOGEL apparently wanted to make a phone call to someone and told BUTCH we would call from the garage rather than from ALEX's apartment. When LADON questioned VOGEL as to why he did not desire to call from ALEX's apartment, VOGEL replied, "Well I'm not going to call from any place, not even the gym, I'm through. May be wrong and I hope I am wrong, but." It would appear that VOGEL is quite concerned that the telephones which he has been using may be tapped and he is apparently calling now only from public phone booths. In this regard VOGEL also cautioned LADON not to call from his house and LADON replied, "Yes, mine is the hottest spot in the world."

Informant advised that after VOGEL and LADON left ALEX's apartment on 3/10/62, ALEX told [redacted] to question [redacted] tomorrow at VOGEL's when she could get her alone because he was certain that she said no to the question the Agents asked her if she knew ALEX and [redacted] stated that if she said no, she could get into trouble because she is denying the truth, however if she said yes she could not get into too much trouble. ALEX told [redacted] "Well BUTCH told me that she said no but I don't want to argue with them". ALEX said, "If she was smart she wouldn't have talked to them. She should tell them once and for all. Don't come up to my place anymore. You go to my attorney. You have my attorney's address. You go up to see him. If he tells me I should talk to you, I will talk to you, now please leave here." [redacted] stated that "She must have done some talking because she just couldn't sit there and ignore them." ALEX said, "They told her that she has been out with VOGEL. They know everything."

CG 6502-C* advised that on 3/11/62 ALEX was talking to an unknown individual on the phone from his apartment and mentioned that he would take [redacted] car. Informant could furnish no further information concerning this conversation. It is believed that the [redacted] referred to by ALEX is [redacted] b6 b7C

On 3/12/62, CG 6502-C* advised that ALEX gave [redacted] the names of [redacted] to call to make an appointment to have a thorough examination. The two names which he gave to [redacted] were those of [redacted] ALEX told [redacted] that he didn't want to become involved in arranging for the examination because if she was not satisified with the findings of [redacted] she could then go to [redacted] He stated that he did not want it to be known that he sent her to [redacted] if [redacted] later decided to go to [redacted]

Informant advised that on 3/13/62, [redacted] was in the apartment of ALEX in the morning and they engaged in a short conversation concerning where they should go for dinner that evening and if they should accompany EDDIE [redacted] to eat. It is believed that EDDIE [redacted] referred to by them is EDDIE VOGEL and [redacted]

Informant advised on 3/14/62 that [redacted] and GUS ALEX entered into a discussion concerning [redacted] mother coming to visit them in Chicago. It is to be noted that [redacted] mother presently resides in

[redacted] told ALEX, "She has to get a visiting visa. She has to go to the American Consul and fill out the proper forms and somebody has to sponsor her. I can be her sponsor." ALEX stated, "You better tell her to start now." [redacted] replied, "She knows what to do because when I was there I called the American Consul and they told her what to do and said that it would take about four to six weeks." b6 b7C

On 3/15/62, CG 6502-C* advised that ALEX and [redacted] engaged in a whispered conversation in ALEX's apartment and therefore he could not furnish any details concerning this conversation.

WEEKLY SUMMARY

Remyairtel dated 3/19/62.

CG 6502-C* advised that on 3/16/62, ALEX and his [redacted] entered into a discussion concerning the affair between ALEX [redacted] told ALEX "It's just not in the books, you don't love me." ALEX said "The hell I don't. I have known you for two and a half years." [redacted] replied that "You don't love me, I can always tell about things like that. I'm not a butterfly and I don't hop from one guy to another. Don't you know if I didn't want to be with you I wouldn't be here with you, because I'm not that kind of person. I'm too honest and you should know that. If you're fooling around with me then that's one thing I can't stand. Are you?" ALEX said,"I'm not." b6 b7C

CG 6502-C* further advised that on 3/16/62, ALEX mentioned to [redacted] that he paid $369 for a champagne bucket. ALEX stated that it had eight champagne glasses and eight other glasses.

Informant further advised on 3/16/62, that ALEX told [redacted] "When you come down to Murphy's, please call me, call me when you're going to be there." [redacted] stated,"Yes, I'm anxious to see if we can make it a friendly evening." ALEX stated "I don't need any key. How do you like that joint?"

[redacted] replied, "I like that place, I like Chinese food." From the above conversation it appears that ALEX in the past has frequented a Chinese restaurant which he refers to as Murphy's. This information has previously been received by this source as well as from CG 6343-C*.

CG 6502-C* advised on 3/17/62, that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a discussion at ALEX's apartment and ALEX asked [redacted] if she would like to go to New York. [redacted] stated that she would like this and that she would also like to go to Japan and Egypt some day.

ALEX also mentioned to [redacted] on 3/17/62, that he had to go down to his mother's on that date and return to the "Loop" area by 11:00. He told [redacted] that on the evening of 3/17/62, they would attend a movie in the Loop area of Chicago. b6 b7C

CG 6502-c* further advised on 3/17/62, that ALEX told [redacted] in the presence of his chauffeur NATHON LADON that she could not wear mink as it was getting too warm. [redacted] replied, "All the women were wearing their minks today by the hundreds." LADON added "Sure she's going to wear her mink tonight. Let her wear it." From the above conversation it appears that ALEX has bought a mink coat for his [redacted]

This informant further advised that on the evening of 3/17/62, EDDIE VOGEL stopped in to see ALEX but did not engage in any lengthy conversation and the informant could not furnish any details concerning this short conversation.

Informant further advised that ALEX and [redacted] on the evening of 3/17/62, engaged in a conversation concerning the purchase of some silverware and dishes. The informant could not ascertain where the purchase was to be made, however advised it was to be made in the near future be ALEX.

Informant further advised that ALEX, [redacted] and NATHON LADON engaged in the following conversation on the evening of 3/17/62:

LADON said, "If you were alone you would stay here every night if he asked you to." ALEX said "If I ask her to, you mean if I tell her to." [redacted] said "You don't have to tell me, if you are not here I will stay here." ALEX said "I give her everything she wants." LADO said "She knows it's a cruel world." [redacted] said "He takes good care of me." LADON said "If you tell her to stand in the corner for 48 hours she'd do it, right [redacted] ALEX said "Why not?" [redacted] said "What am I going to lose by doing it?" From the above conversation it is apparent that [redacted] spends a great deal of her time at ALEX's apartment and that she is accepting all the money and gifts that ALEX will give her. It is to be noted that she is at ALEX's apartment almost daily. b6 b7C

The informant advised on 3/19/62, that ALEX had apparently purchased another coat for his [redacted] as he asked his chauffeur on that date, "Do you like that coat BUTCH?" Informant further advised that [redacted] apparently had the coat altered but ALEX was dissatisfied with the looks of the coat after this was done. This was apparent because informant said that ALEX told [redacted] "You know what makes me mad, when you have something expensive like that coat, you just don't go taking guesses at sewing and this and that, you've got to do it and not guess. When you were by that woman and you got something expensive, you and her should talk and get it right. Not sit around and laugh when you got good stuff. You won't do that any more?" [redacted] replied "No, I won't."

On 3/20/62, the informant advised that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a discussion concerning methods of depositing money in the bank. [redacted] stated that "a checking account is better, anyone will cash a check for you on a Chicago bank. A savings account you can't draw any checks on it. You have to go there and draw it out." ALEX said "Will they cash a check for you if you only have a savings account? They won't, right? You've got to have a checking account before you can cash a check. [redacted] stated "That's right." ALEX said, Well, here's what I mean, I'm losing money. I don't have a savings account and I never make out a check, never." [redacted] stated, "Well why don't you put it in a savings account and get out 4½ per cent interest?" ALEX said "I know that but when I want to cash a check I could not do that with a savings account. I'm going to ask them at the bank and maybe put $500 in a checking account and the rest in a savings account. If they dry me up, I don't have one dollar, I don't have no bonds." From the above conversation it is apparent that ALEX is contemplating changing his checking account over to a savings account. It is to be noted that ALEX has a checking account at the American National Bank and Trust Company and that he has approximately $3,200 in this checking account.

Informant further advised on 3/20/62, that [redacted] asked ALEX if EDDIE VOGEL keeps track of the money he pays BUTCH LADON. ALEX told [redacted] that he does keep a record of it. [redacted] then stated, "Well if he reports it, BUTCH has to file." ALEX stated that he knew that but that LADON doesn't have any money to pay as EDDIE does not deduct it from his pay. From the above conversation it is apparent that ALEX and [redacted] are discussing whether BUTCH LADON files an income tax return and it would appear from the above conversation that it is doubtful whether BUTCH is planning on filing a return. b6 b7C Informant further advised on 3/20/62, that ALEX mentioned to [redacted] that he had made up his mind about the silverware. ALEX stated that it would cost a little over $4,000 for the silverware and the china and that he thought for the time being he would omit the silverware. He stated that he could get all the china for about $900.

On 3/22/62, informant advised that ALEX and his chauffeur, NATHON LADON, engaged in the following conversation: LADON said "Where do you think [redacted] went last night?" ALEX said, "Where?" LADO said "Hartford House." ALEX said "I'm going to try to arrange to eat there either next Monday or Tuesday and if I can you and [redacted] will go with me. [redacted] referred to above, is undoubtedly [redacted] a close associate and friend of ALEX. [redacted] LADON. Hartford House is undoubtedly the restaurant in the Hartford Insurance Building on Wacker Drive. This building is just recently completed and is evidently a new restaurant which is frequented by ALEX and his associates.

WEEKLY SUMMARY

Remyairtel dated 3/5/62.

CG 6502-C* advised that GUS ALEX and [redacted] were in ALEX's apartment on 3/5/62. Informant advised that ALEX became irritated at [redacted] because she answered his telephone. It is to be noted that ALEX has a code which he furnishes to persons who desire to call him at his apartment. This code is as follows:

The caller calls ALEX's number, lets it ring once and hangs up. The caller then again dials ALEX's numbers and lets it ring once and again hangs up. The caller then dials ALEX's number the third time whereupon ALEX answers it on the first ring.

CG 6502-C* advised that ALEX and [redacted] were in ALEX's apartment on 3/4/62, but could furnish no information regarding their discussion. This was due to the fact that ALEX had his T.V. on exceptionally loud which ALEX occasionally does.

On 3/3/62, CG 6502-C* advised that ALEX asked [redacted] if she had gotten paid yet. [redacted] replied that she had not. ALEX then told [redacted] that he wanted her to deposit her whole check right in the bank. [redacted] stated that she would but that since it was a short month she would only get about $90.00, which was for nine work days. Informant also advised that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a discussion concerning [redacted] lease at her apartment. [redacted] informed ALEX that she had lived in four places in Chicago and that at all places she had a lease except when she resided at the [redacted] where she rented on a weekly basis. She stated that everywhere else she had a lease and the amount of rental was stated right in the lease.

Informant further advised on 3/3/62, that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a discussion concerning [redacted] and EDDIE. [redacted] stated that what she could not understand was why [redacted] did not stay another week in Miami since she was down there together with EDDIE. [redacted] also asked, "Why Acapulco?". ALEX replied that he did not know but "there must be some kind of monkey business somewhere". [redacted] stated that [redacted] would not sit around alone all day and would find company to run around. Since it is known by this office that both [redacted] and EDDIE VOGEL were known to be in Florida during the week of 2/25/62 through 3/2/62, it is apparent that the [redacted] and EDDIE referred to above are [redacted] and EDDIE VOGEL. Inquiry at [redacted] Chicago, where [redacted] on 2/26/62, disclosed that [redacted] was out of town for a two week vacation. It is entirely possible that the person talked to [redacted] telephonically contacted [redacted] in Florida and informed her of the inquiry by the FBI. In view of this inquiry, she may have returned to Chicago a week earlier, not originally anticipated, because she does not want it to be known [redacted] that she is associating with EDDIE VOGEL, a Chicago top hoodlum.

b7C

Informant further advised that on the evening of 3/3/62, NATHAN "BUTCH" LADON and [redacted] visited at the apartment of ALEX. [redacted]

b6

told ALEX that she is upset all the time and that she wished she had something to do during the day and possibly if she did, she would not feel so bad. ALEX told [redacted] that he had the same thing about a year ago at which time he was upset all the time. He said that he occasionally gets it now and had a small attack of it on 3/3/62. He complained about being upset about something on that date. ALEX called it some kind of neurosis which means that, "You worry about something that may never happen". ALEX also mentioned to [redacted] that he bought a book which contains all the sicknesses that a psychiatrist can help you with. ALEX told [redacted] "I used to go swimming in the lake, in the cold water, to try to calm myself. 'BUTCH' was with me every day and that is what I like about 'BUTCH'."

Informant further advised that during the evening of 3/3/62, and in the presence of [redacted] and "EUTCH" LADON, ALEX had exhibited his newest paintings which he had purchased. ALEX mentioned onewhich was a painting of a brother and a sister selling newspapers in Paris and one of the individuals had his feet sticking out of the bottom of his shoes. Informant has previously advised that ALEX is a collector of paintings and had recently purchased two new paintings when last in New York City.

Informant further advised that later in the evening of 3/3/62, EDDIE VOGEL with LADON visited at the apartment of ALEX. [redacted] was also at the apartment at this time. The conversation in whichithey engaged in was concerning a 1.58 carat diamond bracelet which EDDIE VOGEL had brought with him to ALEX's apartment. From the conversation it appeared like VOGEL had gotten the bracelet upon the orders of ALEX because ALEX told VOGEL, "Give the guy $2,500.00 for it". VOGEL replied, "He didn't go down to any $2,500.00". ALEX replied, "Tell him to go to hell after that. Who can he holler to [redacted] ALEX then told VOGEL, "Tell him I bought it. For [redacted] sake, EDDIE give it to me, he gave EDDIE the money, and that's the end of it." ALEX then further stated to VOGEL, "So you gave it to me and I gave you the money, I bought it for another friend of mine, understand". Informant advised that ALEX and VOGEL then entered into a discussion concerning the fact that they will take it to an unknown jeweler, apparently to have it appraised, and that after that they would get rid of it. Informant had this opinion because ALEX said, "We'll shop this(obscene) thing around".

Informant further advised that during the evening of 3/3/62, VOGEL and ALEX were kidding LADON about how much money LADON had spent when recently accompanying VOGEL on a trip to Florida. From this conversation it was apparent to informant that LADON was in the company of VOGEL in Florida for about four days during the week of 2/26 through 3/2/62. During this kidding of LADON, ALEX told LADON that he was a natural born liar and compared him to a three horse parlay with GEORGE BIEBER and JOSEPH BORENSTEIN. ALEX and VOGEL stated that they would not believe anything that BIEBER and BORENSTEIN told them either. It is to be noted that both BORENSTEIN and BIEBER are well known hoodlum attorneys in Chicago.

On 3/2/62, informant advised that [redacted] was writing a letter to her mother while at ALEX's apartment. ALEX asked [redacted] if she wanted a hundred dollar bill to put in the letter to her mother and [redacted] replied yes she did. ALEX further advised [redacted] to inform her mother that they were saving their money for her trip to visit them in the United States. ALEX told [redacted] to tell her mother, "Tell her we are saving and tell her I play cards and everything I win I put aside". It is to be noted that [redacted] resides in [redacted] and that [redacted] corresponds with her frequently. It is apparent that ALEX also gives [redacted] money to send to her mother [redacted]

WEEKLY SUMMARY

Reairtel dated 3/26/62.

CG 6502-C* advised on 3/23/62 that ALEX instructed his chauffeur, NATHON LADON, to take something to the Wolk Camera Company on North Wabash Avenue.

On 3/23/62, informant advised that LADON told ALEX that he had forgot to tell him something the night before. LADON told ALEX that [redacted] (ph) told him that "at about 5 o'clock on 3/23/62 he got a call from a girl and she wanted to talk to GUS ALEX. [redacted] gave her the number at the gym and told her to call you there." "Did you get that call?" ALEX replied, "No, if that is true I'll murder him." [redacted] is not known at this time.

It is to be noted that in the past information has been received that whenever a person desired to contact ALEX, they could either reach him at Celano's Tailors on North Michigan or at Postl's Gym on Randolph and Wells. From ALEX's comment, he evidently still desires this information to be given out only to his closest associates.

On 3/24/62, CG 6502-C* advised that NATHON LADON, ALEX's chauffeur, was in conference with ALEX at his apartment. LADON told ALEX when he was ready to leave that, "If you want me, I'll be at [redacted] ALEX stated, "OK, I'll call you in about 45 minutes."

The [redacted] referred to above is undoubtedly [redacted] Susk Pontiac Company, Chicago, and a close associate of ALEX. b6 b7C

On 3/24/62, informant further advised that ALEX and his [redacted] were in conference at ALEX's apartment. ALEX told [redacted] "I don't want SAMMIE and MAE to come here and see everything all piled up."

The SAMMIE and MAE referred to above are undoubtedly SAM and MAE TAYLOR, brother and sister-in-law of ALEX. Information has previously been reported that the TAYLORs will be at ALEX's apartment starting the week of April 2, 1962 to arrange for the cleaning and redecorating of ALEX's apartment.

Informant further advised on 3/24/62 that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a conversation concerning [redacted] EDDIE VOGEL. [redacted] mentioned that [redacted] is coming in today or tomorrow." She wondered why she was coming in so early in the morning. ALEX stated he did not know the reason.

The informant further advised on 3/24/62 that ALEX cautioned [redacted] about not buying anything expensive for him for his birthday which was coming up on April 1, 1962. ALEX said, "If you go and spend a hundred dollars on me, I'm telling you right now that you are going to get bawled out." [redacted] replied, "I'm not going to spend a hundred dollars on you." ALEX further told [redacted] that he didn't need any jewelry or anything like that and just to buy him three ties.

The informant further advised on 3/24/62 that ALEX told [redacted] "I left my money in the drawer. Count it, then put it back. I want to check on how much is there." After a short pause in the conversation, [redacted] replied, "$2600.00."

On 3/24/62, informant further advised that ALEX entered into a conversation on the house phone with a garage attendant at the apartment where he is residing and told the attendant to get the Volkswagen out and have it cleaned up. In the conversation ALEX said that the Volkswagon had not been used for a couple of weeks and that he wanted it cleaned inside and out. From the above conversation, it is apparent that ALEX keeps a Volkswagen in the apartment garage. This Volkswagen may possibly by the property of his brother SAM TAYLOR and since SAM TAYLOR was expected in town, he apparently wanted to get it cleaned up for him before he arrived.

CG 6502-C* advised on 3/28/62 that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a conversation concerning international travel. [redacted] stated, "They have some nice Customs Officers in Switzerland, don't they?" ALEX replied, "Customs?" [redacted] replied, "Yes, they are extremely polite. The only one I can't stand is the one in Rome, remember, we got him two years in a row."

Informant further advised on 3/23/62 that ALEX stated to [redacted] "I bought a new jewelry box for you," [redacted] replied, "Oh good. Did you buy it in New York?" From the above comment it appears that ALEX spent about three days in New York, returning on March 28, 1962. This appeared to be true inasmuch as the informant could not furnish anything about the activities of ALEX on 3/25/62, 3/26/62 and 3/27/62.

Informant further advised on 3/28/62 that [redacted] and ALEX entered into a conversation concerning [redacted] said, "Why do they keep bothering [redacted] Do they think they can get something out of her?" ALEX said, "They think that if they talk to her they can embarrass her and that they will try to embarrass her." [redacted] said, "I don't think if she didn't talk to them about anything in particular it would hurt her." ALEX said, "That wouldn't bother them one bit if she cooperated with them." [redacted] stated, "Oh, I don't mean that she should cooperate with them,

Why do they bother her and cause her to [redacted] They are not going to do anything except cause her to [redacted] The [redacted] cannot afford any [redacted] ALEX said, "They asked her if you ever worked at the [redacted] said, "They may never find out because I never worked there while [redacted] was there." ALEX said, "They can find that out very easily and they probably know now."

Undoubtedly the above conversation concerns the recent interview of [redacted] by SAs [redacted] is [redacted] in Chicago for whom [redacted] was interviewed to secure background information regarding [redacted] and when it was made known to him that [redacted] was associating with top hoodlum EDDIE VOGEL, he stated that he would have to advise [redacted] that if her association with VOGEL caused any unfavorable publicity to the [redacted]

The above agents also attempted to interview [redacted] recently but she refused to furnish any information regarding ALEX and VOGEL and referred the agents to her attorney, JULIUS ECHELS. ECHELS subsequently contacted SA [redacted] and stated that he had advised Miss [redacted] not to consent to an interview by an agent of the FBI. b6 b7C

It is to be noted that Mr. [redacted] although not being able to furnish any record of [redacted] employment with [redacted] recalled from memory that [redacted] was a [redacted] It is possible that ALEX met [redacted] as he is known to frequent [redacted] on occasions.

On 3/29/62, informant advised that GUS ALEX and [redacted] entered into a conversation concerning the health of [redacted] They expressed the opinion that it would be better for [redacted] if she stayed with [redacted] in New York because it was too lonely for her here in Chicago by herself. [redacted] NATHON LADON, chauffeur for ALEX.

Those numbers called have been identified in the September, 1961, Numerical Directory of Southern Bell, which is the latest such directory.

It is realized that this check does not necessarily furnish completely accurate information, and it certainly does not furnish complete information. However, the inquiry is not being pursued for the following reasons:

1). Under the CIP we are imposing a heavy burden on our phone company contacts. We do not wish to further burden them in a matter that might not be necessary.

MM 92-138

2). It is not clear at this time if the complete identification of contacts made locally by ELSIE WARTENBERG will be of value to you, or if you even desire same.

SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER

CG 6343-C*

CG 6343-C* on 4/6/62 advised that on that date [redacted] had a conversation with MIKE BRODKIN. BRODKIN is a prominent Chicago attorney who has represented practically all Chicago top hoodlums in defense of criminal charges against them. This source has furnished previous information that BRODKIN is used extensively by Chicago top hoodlums in making payoffs, arranging fixes, and in regard to contact with politicians and public officials. BRODKIN is an extremely close personal friend of GUS ALEX in particular. b6 b7C

The conversation is as follows:

6 - Chicago
1-92-348 (MURRAY HUMPHREYS)
1-92-373 (GUS ALEX)
1-92-505 (FRANK FERRARO)

[redacted]

[redacted] Hello, MICHAEL. You know that case I turned over to [redacted] and it was turned over to [redacted]

BRODKIN: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

[redacted] [redacted] don't call him. He took his money but he doesn't call him. He says now the old man came to me and I don't like to tell CURLEY about these things. He says he calls [redacted] and [redacted] won't even call him back. He doesn't even know when his trial is gonna be set.

BRODKIN: Who turned him over to [redacted] GEORGE BIEBER?

[redacted] Yeah, GEORGE BIEBER. You see he got to GEORGE BIEBER, not knowing (interrupted)

BRODKIN: Who put him in touch with BIEBER?

[redacted] I don't know. All he wants is for [redacted] to call him and see if there's any trial date set. He wants to get it over with.

BRODKIN then dialed the telephone and apparently talked to his secretary and asked for messages. Following this, he asked to talk to his partner, GEORGE BIEBER. In reference to the above, it should be noted that [redacted] is obviously a reference to another associate of BIEBER and BRODKIN's, [redacted] is a former Assistant United States Attorney who now specializes in the practice of criminal law in Federal courts in this area. Although he does not share office space with BIEBER and BRODKIN he is considered their man in reference to all problems in Federal courts. The reference to CURLEY is obviously a reference to Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS. It is noted that [redacted] a wealthy owner of finance companies on the West side of Chicago and in Oak Park, Illinois, has been indicted for evasion of income taxes. [redacted] is married to [redacted]

BRODKIN: (on phone) Yeah, listen, do you remember that tax case that was turned over to you? You turned it over to [redacted]. That's [redacted] father-in-law. Now this poor old man has been calling [redacted] 40 times, see, and [redacted] never even calls him back. Now the old man wants to know when the trial date is, what he has to do, what the hell is the matter with that guy [redacted] Has he been sick? What's the matter with him? For Christ's sake, call him now and tell him to please call this fellow.

(BIEBER apparently asked BRODKIN to hold on a minute and during lull in telephone conversation [redacted] said to BRODKIN:)

b6
b7C

[redacted] CURLEY sent word to him to handle this to help me.

BRODKIN: This fellow's a builder, isn't he?

[redacted] He owns finance companies.

BRODKIN: Did you go to the LaItalia meeting?

[redacted] Yeah.

BRODKIN: Who invited you?

[redacted] The man.

BRODKIN: D'ARCO?

[redacted] No. CHESROW.

BRODKIN: (on phone) Yeah, OK, have him call ya the first thing tomorrow. OK, I'll see ya up there later.
(hangs up phone)

I'll attend to it. You're 100% right. That's the least a man can do when he takes a man's case is call him back, something I've never done in my life. You know he got in this (obs) jack pot, it's not his fate, these (obs) guys got into this (obs) trouble, not our people, [redacted] that (obs) bondsman, that (obs) WEINER. So naturally the kid feels bad. But don't worry about it. Tell him not to worry that from now on he'll have personal attention, you just come to me or GEORGE any time you want. Listen, I gotta come in pretty soon and get some stuff from you.

It is noted that the above reference to a La Italia meeting is a reference to a meeting of prominent Chicago Italians which was held in Chicago just recently. During the past weekend an anonyous source [redacted] and that many prominent Italian-Americans from the Chicago area [redacted] The reference to D'ARCO is obviously a reference to JOHN D'ARCO, the Alderman and Democratic Ward Committeeman of the First Ward of Chicago, and the reference to CHESROW is obviously a reference to FRANK CHESROW, the President of the Board of Trustees of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of greater Chicago. Both D'ARCO and CHESROW were noted by the anonymous source as [redacted] b7D

The reference to the trouble which [redacted] is in is a reference to the fact that he has been indicted in Federal District Court in the Northern District of Illinois based on charges that he tampered with a jury. The reference to [redacted] and others in connection with the above case. The reference to WEINER is a reference to IRWIN WEINER, a leading Chicago bondsman. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] and BRODKIN then discussed for a considerable period of time the fact that both are on diets and the means and methods by which to lose weight. b6 b7C BRODKIN: Where is Handsome? I'd like to take a walk with him. I was in the hospital last week you know, I had that baseball finger of mine operated on, you know. You remember I had a tumor on both sides of it. I went in last week and had them taken off. Handsome looks good, he's all over that (obs) doll. Once in a while he thinks about her and I tell him, oh, for Christ's sake forget about her. But that's the way he is.

[redacted] He's worried about this investigation.

BRODKIN: Listen! I'd worry too. Listen, they're on ya all the time. Listen, when you're cutting the corner that bothers ya. You gotta school yourself to them things. How is SAMBO? Is he through with the hives?

[redacted] Who SAM?

BRODKIN: RIP.

[redacted] Yeah, he's better.

BRODKIN: There's a classy little guy.

How is PAUL? I ain't seen PAUL in a long time. How is he?

[redacted] Where's he gonna go if Italy don't want him?

BRODKIN: That's good. If Italy don't want him, that's good, then he stays right here. You know that don't ya?

[redacted] If Italy don't want him?

BRODKIN: That's right. They can't send him to another country besides his place of origin.

[redacted] He has renounced his citizenship in Italy and they don't want him.

The reference to "HANDSOME" is a reference to GUS ALEX, it being noted that BRODKIN frequently refers to his close friend, ALEX, as "HANDSOME." The reference to [redacted] is obviously a reference to [redacted] ALEX in [redacted]. It has been learned that ALEX continues to have a [redacted] Interview with [redacted] Ambassador Hotels in Chicago where the exclusive Pump Room is located, determined that [redacted] as was previously known, [redacted] advised that frequently ALEX comes [redacted] on [redacted] and sits in a corner drinking a cup of coffee while [redacted] advised that it is obvious that ALEX [redacted] advises that [redacted] ALEX but that she has had no [redacted]

b6
b7C
b6
b7C
b7D

The references to "SAMBO" and to "RIP" are obviously references to SAM ALEX, the brother of GUS ALEX, who resides in Cassopolis, Michigan, on a 100 acre farm. CG 6502-C* has advised that SAM ALEX was in Chicago last week.

The reference to "PAUL" is a reference to PAUL DE LUCIA, also known as Paul Ricca, former Chicago top hoodlum, who just recently lost his last appeal of a deportation order against him.

BRODKIN: Listen, how was the dinner?

[redacted] Fair.

BRODKIN: You were with CHESROW? Does CHESROW come up here?

[redacted] Yes.

BRODKIN: FRANK? How about DAVE?

b6
b7C

[redacted] DAVE comes up once in a while. Not like FRANK though.

BRODKIN: (Obs), didn't he inherit (obs) cesspool of fire.

[redacted] The Mayor comes in here too. He's a nice guy.

BRODKIN: Who brought him in here?

[redacted] [redacted]

BRODKIN: He's a nice guy too. His father-in-law is one of the wealthiest men who ever lived.

[redacted] I talked to him the other day. He lost 14 pounds.

(Following this was a discussion concerning whether or not [redacted] should have his clothes altered.)

DAVE CHESROW, a Chicago attorney, is the brother of FRANK CHESROW. BRODKIN's reference to a "(obs) cesspool of fire" is a reference to the exposure of numerous recent scandals in the Metroplitan Sanitary District of which FRANK CHESROW is President of the Board of Trustees. The reference to [redacted] is a reference to [redacted] a close friend of Mayor DALEY. Through the anonymous source developed over the past weekend it was noted that both Mayor DALEY and [redacted] are customers [redacted] and it is obvious that the above reference as to whether the CHESROWs, Mayor DALEY, and [redacted] "come up here" is a reference to the fact that they are [redacted] b6 b7C BRODKIN: Whata ya hear from my friend? Gee, I miss HUMP. I wonder when he's gonna come back.

[redacted] He called me Saturday.

BRODKIN: He called me too, at the office. A week ago Monday. So he says to me how come you haven't been down here. So I says well I'll come but where can I call ya. He says never mind, he says, you get in here and I'll know an hour later.

[redacted] He would. So I said when are you coming back and he said next year. See he called here and then I went outside and called him back. I had to do something for him.

BRODKIN: He's a nice guy! HUMP is a real nice man!

[redacted] He's a gentleman. He's a diplomat.

BRODKIN: Yeah, and not only a diplomat but a good friend. Listen, he's got more (obs) class than CHEECH.

[redacted] Well, I'm talking about for an old timer.

BRODKIN: Listen! He's got more (obs) class than CHEECH but don't advertise that either. You hear what I said? If he's your (obs) friend, he's your friend! (Obs) I'd do more for him. Well, I proved it to him! When the poor guy suffered with his brother, I suffered with him.

[redacted] Well he was really off his rocker, wasn't he?

BRODKIN: Sure.

[redacted] What finally became of it?

b6
b7C

BRODKIN: Well, he's sick in the head, tumors.

The reference above to HUMP is obviously a reference to Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS. His [redacted] has recently been sick. The reference to CHEECH is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum, FRANK FERRARO. It would appear from the above conversation that HUMPHREYS has been at his Key Biscayne, Florida, residence at least for the past two weeks. It is noted that he has not been observed in Chicago for approximately three or four weeks.

BRODKIN: Where else does the Mayor go? He doesn't just come here, does he?

[redacted] He goes to Duro. But I [redacted] He sent me a nice letter telling me how pleased he was.

BRODKIN: Oh, he's a classy (obs). He calls me, MIKE, and I go in there and drop $500 every (obs) election, a thousand the last time. And I told him I just wanta have entree to your office, nothing else.

[redacted] Well the nice thing about him, he knows about me.

BRODKIN: Are the (obs) still coming around here, are they still on ya?

[redacted] Who cares? You know what I told 'em two years ago.

BRODKIN: What?

[redacted] I asked them not to come in here any more. I says whenever you want me you subpoena me and I'll come in with my lawyer. And they says well who's your lawyer. And I says well I don't know, I got maybe a dozen. And anyone would be glad to come in with me!

BRODKIN: You know he called me, that ROEMER, see, he says MIKE how are ya and I don't even know the (obs)! So he says to me, [redacted], what's his name, PHILLY KATZ' [redacted] you know his name the kid, he used [redacted] for these guys, [redacted] He used to [redacted] what's his name?

[redacted] Oh, yeah, but I didn't know he was KATZ' [redacted]

b6
b7C

BRODKIN: He's got a Swedish name, but he's Jewish.

[redacted] Is he a Jewish kid? I didn't know that.

BRODKIN: Sure. He's got a Swedish name, he's a Jewish kid but, nice kid. So he says to me, do you mean to tell me that you're not gonna cooperate with us? So I said say listen! I'm a lawyer. These people pay me for advise and when I figure in my best judgment that they shouldn't talk to you, that's gonna be my answer to 'em. Is there anything in the law Mr. ROEMER that says that they have to talk to you. He said no. But you're not gonna cooperate with us, and I said no!

[redacted] He pulled that same stuff with me too, don't you want to be a good American citizen.

BRODKIN: Wait a minute. Then he says to me I talked to LOUIE ARGER. And he says, is your feeling gonna be the same about him. And I says when LOUIE ARGER comes in and retains me, if I feel it is to his best advantage, I'm advising him the same way. Thank you. It's been nice talking to ya.

In reference to the above, it is noted that [redacted] MURRAY HUMPHREYS. He was interviewed on one occasion by SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER but when questioned concerning his relationship with HUMPHREYS, he refused to answer and referred SA ROEMER to his attorney, BRODKIN. BRODKIN then refused to allow [redacted] to submit to further interview concerning HUMPHREYS. [redacted] is a [redacted] PHIL KATZ. KATZ has been one of the largest bookmakers in Chicago. LOUIS ARGER is a lieutenant of Chicago top hoodlum GUS ALEX. Attempts were made to interview ARGER some time ago and he referred the interviewing Agents to his attorney, BRODKIN. It is noted that BRODKIN's account of his contact with SA ROEMER is approximately factual.

[redacted] I had a different run in with him besides this. I had a friend who escaped from prison out in California and I was on his mailing list.

BRODKIN: So he knew it, huh?

[redacted] And he was on the case. The local fellows, they come in and I was able to handle them. I said, yeah, I was a friend of his father's. And they said what about this girl and I said yeah that's his sister. I said I'm friendly with her too, is there anything wrong with that? But he went up to the house and talked to her and she said he's just a friend, just a friend of the family.

In reference to the above, it is noted that approximately two years ago one [redacted] escaped from a Federal penitentiary in California. The case was assigned to SA ROEMER in this office when it became known that [redacted] corresponded with [redacted] Investigation here determined that [redacted] was keeping [redacted] near the Ambassador Hotels in Chicago and that [redacted] Miss [redacted] was contacted on several occasions during the course of that investigation. She was extremely friendly and readily admitted details concerning her relationship with [redacted] however, it is obvious from previous conversations of [redacted] that he is unaware of her cooperation. [redacted] was later apprehended in California after CG 6343-C* furnished information concerning the fact that he was hidding out in Mexico with the knowledge of [redacted]

BRODKIN: How is Mr. GINSBERG?

[redacted] He doesn't come in much any more.

BRODKIN: Where does he go?

[redacted] Pucci's. He's made about a dozen of them for him.

b6
b7C

BRODKIN: Why does he go there?

[redacted] I don't know. I didn't ask him. But at the same time MIKE he turns around and I'll bet you in the past year he's given me $5,000 in the place. He sends a lot of people to me.

It is believed that the reference to "Mr. GINSBERG" may be a reference to Chicago top hoodlum, EDWARD VOGEL, who is known to be purchasing his clothes recently at Pucci's Tailors, a [redacted]

BRODKIN: (making telephone call) [redacted] please. [redacted] whata ya know pal?

[redacted] Tell him I think he's a bum.

BRODKIN: (on phone) Isn't that awful about SIDNEY? I got the call last night and I don't think I slept two hours. A real good guy. Ten minutes after his brother called, then [redacted] called me, then [redacted] called me from Vegas to give me the same news. Ain't that awful? 61 years old, prime of life.

[redacted] Who died?

BRODKIN: SIDNEY WILLIAMS. He's not dead but he's in a coma, but I hope God takes him so he don't suffer.

Is he sitting there now? Let me talk to him. Where's BIEBER? How do I know, BIEBER's got a lot of new friends, [redacted] and all the big shots. Big deal. I'm sitting here with a friend of yours, [redacted] [redacted] I know what he's thinking. That (obs) spaghetti (obs).

BRODKIN: He's all right. (Obs) right he is. He's my boy. (Obs) you.

[redacted] Tell him I'll punch him in the nose the next time I see him.

b6

BRODKIN: He says he'll punch you in the nose if you don't behave. So what else? So what about it? He's got enough money to have a car in his own name and the worse thing about it he's a good driver; if you're talking about his friend CHEECHO, he's a wild man with a car! FRANKIE. No, he's all right, yeah, [redacted] all right! So what else, pal? They say mom is fine today. OK (hangs up).

It is obvious that BRODKIN telephonically contacted [redacted] Mid State Ford, 3535 North Ashland, in Chicago. The reference to BIEBER's friend, [redacted] is obviously a reference to [redacted] who is known to be extremely friendly with BIEBER. The reference to "CHEECHO" is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO. BRODKIN then tells [redacted] that [redacted] gave him a car for a wedding present and each year gives him a new one at no charge.

BRODKIN: I see where you got me here under the name of BAKER. Why that? (Obs) I can afford to buy. How many do I buy a year, six a year, four a year?

[redacted] If they should come up here, I'm just gonna say I don't intend to answer. Any answer I give might tend to incriminate me.

BRODKIN: That's right.

BRODKIN again contacted his office for messages. He then informed [redacted] attempted to contact [redacted] but was told that he has been in Arizona. He also informed [redacted] that there has been no date set for trial.

SUBJECT: GUS ALEX, aka

WEEKLY SUMMARY

Re Chicago airtel dated 4/2/62.

CG 6502-C* advised that on 3/30/62 SAM and MAE TAYLOR, brother and sister-in-law of ALEX were in ALEX's apartment on that date. Informant advised that SAM TAYLOR engaged in several conversations with the apartment building employees regarding the cleaning and redecorating of ALEX's apartment. It is to be noted that this informant previously advised that SAM and MAE TAYLOR were to supervise the cleaning and redecorating of ALEX's apartment starting on 4/2/62.

CG 6502-C* advised that on 3/31/62 ALEX was engaged in a conversation on the house phone with personnel at the apartment garage which ALEX was overheard to say "Please get the TAYLOR volkswagon wiped off and I'll be down to get it in about 3/4 of a hour." From this conversation it is apparent that either ALEX maintains a volkswagon in the garage or it is kept there for SAM TAYLOR who was in town on that date. Since ALEX is usually chauffeured by NATHON LADON, the volkswagon would more likely be the property of SAM TAYLOR and would be used whenever he is in town visiting ALEX.

The informant further advised on 3/31 last that EDDIE VOGEL and NATHAN LADON visited ALEX's apartment and entered into a conversation concerning LADON's employment for VOGEL and ALEX as a chauffeur. VOGEL accused LADON of "lying down on the job" and stated "What do you do all day. You go up into the gym and take a bath and then you sleep and then you get a massage. You better quit clowning because you are the one whose partly the blame for all this graft. You know you put a guy on Broadway then you have to take him off, because he couldn't get used to it." VOGEL is unquestionably referring to LADON visiting Postl's Gym where VOGEL and ALEX are also members and where LADON frequently waits for messages for VOGEL and ALEX. VOGEL berated LADON for not being able to manage his own affairs and stated to him "How many guys would like to have a job like your's. They would swim a river, wouldn't they, they would swim a river of blood." ALEX told VOGEL on this occasion that he is partly the blame for spoiling LADON, but he was not going to do it any more.

The informant further advised on 3/31/62 that ALEX told VOGEL that LADON wanted VOGEL to pay his income tax for him. VOGEL told LADON that he would pay it for him but that LADON would have to pay it back. ALEX said "No he does not want to pay it back." VOGEL then replied "To bad well I can get anybody to drive for me."

The informant further advised on 3/31/62 that VOGEL stated that he was having BERGIE (Phonetic) coming over to his house on 4/1/62. VOGEL told ALEX that if he did not make any money he did not want any expenses and that he was not claiming any deductions. He told ALEX that he wanted to divorce himself from any "outs." VOGEL also stated "I'm not going to deduct any and I know BERGIE told GREEN he better do it or else." From the above conversation VOGEL is apparently discussing the preparation of his income tax return. The BERGIE referred to above may possibly be EUGENE BERNSTEIN a tax accountant for VOGEL and ALEX. GREEN referred to above is HAROLD GREEN, 3130 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, who is also a tax accountant.

The informant further advised that on 3/31/62, VOGEL mentioned to ALEX that FREIDA said she had all the curtains drawn so that nobody could take a picture and that she told VOGEL she thought it would be a good idea if they went away for awhile. ALEX asked VOGEL if she meant just him, and VOGEL replied no that she meant the both of them, FREIDA and VOGEL. VOGEL said that FREIDA also told him that it would be a good idea for them to get away for awhile and cool this place off and keep the heat off for awhile. The informant said that VOGEL and ALEX were discussing the above in a joking manner. FREIDA referred to above is FREIDA CARPENTER who is VOGEL's maid.

The informant further advised on 3/31/62, that VOGEL and LADON engaged in an argument concerning the fact that LADON is residing in a high rent district in Chicago, namely, 1550 North Lake Shore Drive. VOGEL stated that the reason he moved to this address because ALEX had given him the okay to do so.

The informant further advised that on 3/31/62 VOGEL told ALEX that "He wanted to be in town on the 15th, and he wanted to be back regardless whenever you are away." ALEX said that he would "work on the matter but would not authorize anything and would tell them that the final okay had to come from VOGEL."

The nature of the above conversation is unknown, however, it appears that there is some type of decision that has to be made by VOGEL on the 15th of April and that ALEX wanted VOGEL to be here on that date to make this decision.

The informant further advised on 3/31/62 that VOGEL mentioned to ALEX that "MOONEY had come in." ALEX replied "He left already." VOGEL said "He did not leave, he is leaving today." ALEX said "He was with him yesterday." VOGEL said "He was over there with him and he said to forget about 3 or 4 vacations a year, that's over with, he won't have it." ALEX commented "Wellhe works hard." VOGEL replied "What do you mean he? He doesn't work harder then anybody else."

The LOONEY referred to above is SAM GIANCANA and from their conversation it appears that LOONEY is unhappy about VOGEL and some of his associates taking 3 or 4 vacations a year.

The informant further advised on 3/31/62 that VOGEL was displeased with one of his employees, namely, JULIUS ZIMMEROFF buying a house in Florida, and taking several trips a year to Florida.

The informant further advised on 3/31/62, that ALEX was planning on having dinner at Miller's Steak House on North Western Avenue on the evening of 3/31/62.

On 3/31/62, the informant further advised that ALEX told LADON "What did [redacted] tell you to your face." LADON replied "Well what if she was." ALEX replied "Well he bawled me out for telling you, [redacted] did." The [redacted] referred to above is probably [redacted] which is a known hangout for ALEX and other Chicago hoodlums. b6 b7C

CG 6502-C* advised that on 4/1/62, ALEX and his [redacted] entered into a discussion whereby they made plans for celebrating ALEX's birthday which was 4/1/62.

The informant also advised on 4/1/62, that ALEX told [redacted] that he got his bike out and looked it over and was going to put his initials on it. He said it was a new bike and only had 4 miles on it. Previous information has been received that ALEX has a bicycle stored at the apartment garage and from the above conversation it appears like ALEX is planning to exercise in the near future by riding his bicycle.

The informant further advised on 4/1/62 that ALEX was planning on going to the Cart Restaurant on that date and commented to [redacted] that "The guys know that I'm there and on Sundays they come to see me." The restaurant referred to above could be the Cart Restaurant at 601 South Wabash Street or possibly the Carte Blanche (Augostino's Restaurant) 7 East Delaware. Both of these restaurants are known to be frequented in the past by ALEX and his associates.

On 4/2/62 the informant advised that SAM and MAE TAYLOR were in the apartment of ALEX on that date and supervising the cleaning personnel there.

CG 6502-C* also advised that on 4/3/4 and 5, 1962, SAM and MAE TAYLOR were in ALEX's apartment supervising a cleaning and decorating of ALEX's apartment.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date APRIL 10, 1962

The informant advised as follows:

That on April 4th, an individual visited EDDIE VOGEL at his residence at 320 Oakdale. He stated that this individual arrived in a 1960 black Thunderbird convertible bearing Illinois '62 plates HG 3130. (This car is registered to HAROLD GREEN, 3130 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, on a 1960 Thunderbird.) He continued that the individual who drove this car, parked it in the parking slot reserved for VOGEL and proceeded to carry a briefcase and large parcel of papers to VOGEL's apartment where he remained for several hours.

That BUTCH LADON continues to chauffeur EDDIE VOGEL, but has not been seen for approximately two weeks.

FRANK FERRARO has not spent much time at his apartment, 1801 within the past six weeks. He continued that when FERRARO does stay at the apartment he usually leaves at about 9:00 AM on the following morning.

That FERRARO's wife has been leaving the house at about 11:00 A.M. every day and returns at between 2:00 and 3:00 P.M. Mrs. FERRARO uses a Yellow Cab on each occasion. He stated that she frequents many shows and restaurants in the Loop area on these occasions. He also advised that it is very obvious that Mrs. FERRARO continues to drink to a great degree.

That FRANK FERRARO has been being picked up by an individual described as white, male, 6' tall, 180 lbs., who drives a 1960 white Chevrolet. This man is not identical with HY GODFREY.

WEEKLY SUMMARY

Remyairtel dated 4/9/62.

CG 6502-C* advised that SAM and MAE TAYLOR, brother and sister-in-law of GUS ALEX, were in the apartment of ALEX on 4/6/62. Informant stated that SAM TAYLOR was supervising the cleaning and decorating of ALEX' apartment. SAM TAYLOR mentioned to the workmen that he would like to give them some business if they had a representative in Michigan where he resides. From the conversation between SAM TAYLOR and the workmen it appeared that the work at ALEX' apartment was to be completed on that date, and that SAM TAYLOR would be returning to Michigan on 4/6 or 4/7/62.

CG 6502-C* advised that he overheard a conversation between ALEX and his [redacted] on 4/7/62 concerning the purchase of an automobile by ALEX. ALEX told [redacted] he was getting a new Thunderbird to be delivered on that date. It is to be noted that information was received from a representative of the American National Bank and Trust Company that on 4/6/62 ALEX wrote a check for $4,846.05 payable to Midstate Motors, Inc. It is apparent from this transaction that ALEX has purchased a new Thunderbird from Midstate Motors which Ford agency [redacted] associate of ALEX.

On 4/7/62 informant advised that on the following day, 4/8/62, ALEX was planning to take his mother and [redacted] to dinner at the Milkpail, a restaurant located near Dundee, Illinois. b6 b7C

Informant also advised on 4/7/62 that ALEX and [redacted] had a reservation at the Drake Hotel for dinner that evening; however, this reservation was cancelled because ALEX could not locate [redacted] who was to accompany ALEX, [redacted] and his chauffeur NATHAN LADON for dinner that evening.

CG 6502-C* also advised on 4/7/62 that ALEX and [redacted] engaged in a conversation concerning a visit to be made to this country by [redacted] mother. [redacted] stated that since her mother lives in [redacted] in order to get a visiting visa her mother has to state that she is visiting a friend in the U.S. ALEX stated that he would rather have her mother state that she was visiting this country to see a doctor for an examination rather then sponsor her himself. However, [redacted] did not agree with ALEX' thinking in this regard and insisted that ALEX or someone else sponsor her mother's visit to this country.

Informant further advised on 4/7/62 that ALEX' chauffeur, NATHAN LADON, visited ALEX at his apartment, and they engaged in a discussion concerning LADON's plans for chauffeuring ALEX that evening. Informant stated on 4/8/62 that ALEX and [redacted] were in ALEX' apartment on 4/8/62 and entered into a discussion concerning ALEX' health. ALEX told [redacted] that he was upset and did not sleep the night before.

Informant advised on 4/9/62 that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a discussion on that date, again concerning ALEX' health. ALEX told [redacted] that he took her advice and instead of getting up took a pill and stayed in bed, and he finally went back to sleep.

CG 6502-C* has advised on 4/9/62 that ALEX stated to [redacted] "When we go to New York here is where you're going to stay. I'll be at a hotel which is only a block away. Your hotel is an old one and a lot of elderly people stay there. I'll get you a room there." [redacted] replied "You said that the 23rd was Monday, and we wanted to go the following weekend." ALEX replied "Thursday night." [redacted] stated "Should I ask for this day off?" ALEX replied "Yes, that Friday." It was determined through an established source at [redacted] that she has requested Friday, 4/27/62, off from work. From the above conversation it would appear that ALEX and [redacted] are going on a weekend trip to New York starting on Thursday night, 4/26/62.

Informant advised on 4/10/62 that he overheard ALEX on the house phone talking to the apartment garage and stated "Would you get out the TAYLOR Thunderbird?" From this comment it is apparent that ALEX has already secured his new Thunderbird from Midstate Motors.

Informant further advised on 4/10/62 that ALEX and his chauffeur, NATHAN LADON, engaged in a conversation at ALEX' apartment. ALEX commented to LADON that EDDIE VOGEL did not need the large apartment which he is presently residing in. When LADON commented that he needed the room, especially the large clothes closets, ALEX commented "What does he need all the closets for, just to go to the club." The reference to the club made by ALEX was apparently a reference to Postl's Gym where VOGEL visits almost on a daily basis when he is in town.

ALEX and LADON further engaged in a discussion concerning fire insurance, and during the discussion ALEX stated "ROEMER will fix you." ROEMER, mentioned above, is undoubtedly SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER, Jr. of this Office who has conducted considerable investigation, in the past, concerning GUS ALEX and other Chicago top hoodlums. Informant could not elaborate on the comment made by ALEX.

Informant further advised on 4/10/62 that ALEX mentioned to LADON that he bet that EDDIE VOGEL would call MICKEY while he is out West. ALEX said he thinks that he should look after MICKEY and LADON replied "He gave him a $1,000 for his operation. Who else would give him a $1,000 cold cash." The MICKEY, mentioned above, by ALEX is possibly MICKEY FARR, a bookmaker and fight fixer and who has visited in California frequently, in the past, and is known to be a good friend of EDDIE VOGEL.

Syndicate Has Easter Parade

Coin Game Men Gaily Attired for Dinner

BY SANDY SMITH

The slot machine and juke box division of the Chicago crime syndicate had its own Easter parade last night.

The coin game racketeers followed their slot machine king, Eddie [Dutch] Vogel, 66, of 320 Oakdale av., to a dinner dance in the Mosaic room in the Belden-Stratford hotel, 2300 Lincoln Park West.

The party was arranged by the syndicate's Loop betting boss, Gus [Slim] Alex, 48, a longtime chum of Vogel. The occasion was the 21st wedding anniversary of Vogel's brother, William, who is a partner in the Vogel cigaret and juke box distributing firms.

Becomes a Pow-Wow

But the dinner dance soon became a pow-wow of Vogel's men in the syndicate.

The gangsters were dressed nattily. Shirts were pleated, shoes were pointed. Hats were snap brimmed. Vogel himself was resplendent in a dark, pin stripe suit, pleated shirt, and powder blue tie.

The marshal of the gangland dress parade was Nathan [Butch] Ladon, 50, 1550 Lake Shore dr., a hoodlum who wears horn rimmed spectacles. Ladon is a chauffeur and messenger for Alex and Vogel.

Butch is Overruled

Butch spotted a reporter looking at the guest book and charged out to proclaim: "Get out of here!"

Vogel, attracted by Butch's shouting, got up from his seat of honor at a center table. He shoved Ladon aside and said to a reporter:

"Don't pay any attention to Butch."

Then, in one of the few interviews he ever has granted, Vogel pleaded that his party was just a get-together of "the family and a few business friends."

"Some people call my business a racket, but I prefer to consider it a business," said Vogel, who once forced terrified tavern keepers into installing his slot machines and pin ball games across northern Cooy county. "I took a racket and put it on a business basis. I never muscled or hurt anybody."

"Did Favors for People"

"I just did favors for people and then they had to do favors for me. That's not muscle. See!"

Vogel confided that "things are tough now" because the justice department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation are cracking down on him.

"With all the federal heat, we can't open up the slots as we used to," Vogel said. "The only thing I've got now are juke boxes and cigaret machines.

"Uncle Sam has taken me out of the rackets. I just pay my income taxes and hope the government will stay off my back."

WEEKLY SUMMARY

Reurairtel dated 4/16/62.

CG 6502-C* advised that on 4/13/62 ALEX and [redacted] of ALEX, entered into a short discussion concerning the dates 4/23 and 4/29/62. They did not elaborate on what was to take place on these dates, however, it is believed that they were talking about their anticipated trip to New York which would cover these dates. b6 b7C

CG 6502-C* advised that ALEX questioned [redacted] regarding her driver's license and stated that she was going to drive the following day. It is to be noted that ALEX has recently purchased a new 1962 Thunderbird and it is apparent that [redacted] is going to drive this car when they go out the next day.

The informant further advised on 4/14/62 that ALEX chastised [redacted] because she was leaving things laying around the apartment and ALEX told her "If you want a house like that I'll let you stay over at your own place." ALEX commented that he liked things in their place and not like a messy apartment.

The informant further advised on 4/14/62 that [redacted] mentioned to ALEX that she had already paid an unknown establishment $92 for a wig and the box to keep the wig in. She indicated that the total cost of the wig and the box to carry it in at about $200.

The informant advised on 4/14/62 that ALEX entered into a conversation with his chauffeur and bodyguard, NATHON LADON on that date. ALEX told LADON that he had found two new places to eat and that MILLER did not know about either of these two places. ALEX indicated that they were in Elgin, Illinois, but did not identify the establishments. It is noted that MILLER referred to above is a code name which ALEX uses for his top hoodlum associate, EDDIE VOGEL.

The informant advised on 4/17/62 that ALEX mentioned to [redacted] that he wanted her to wear the black dress that he had bought for her at Jack Green's. It is to be noted that ALEX is continuously buying wearing apparel and other presents for his [redacted]

The informant advised on 4/18/62 in a conversation between ALEX and [redacted] that ALEX commented to [redacted] that he was tired and that he would lie down at the club that day. Investigation has disclosed that whenever ALEX refers to the club he is referring to Postl's Health Club where he is a frequent visitor.

The informant advised on 4/19/62 that ALEX in a discussion with [redacted] mentioned that he had stopped by the Mercedes Benz place on Broadway and inquired about the big Mercedes Benz. ALEX stated that the proprietor had mentioned to him that the next time he went to Europe he would bring back one for ALEX at their place, if he wanted one.

The informant further advised on 4/19/62 that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a discussion concerning their anticipated trip to New York in the near future. [redacted] asked ALEX if he wanted her to make the hotel reservation under her true name and ALEX replied in the affirmative. [redacted] then stated that then they would know that she was in New York because if they saw her enter the hotel they would know her name and could check and find out that she was in New York. [redacted] said especially if they saw her go in to the hotel. ALEX commented "Yes but if you make the reservation and they mail the confirmation they have no place to mail it." When [redacted] asked ALEX if he wanted them to mail the confirmation to her address ALEX replied something about "at the lunchroom", but the full text of his reply could not be overheard by the informant. They continued their conversation and ALEX stated that they would leave Thursday and that they would catch the 6 o'clock plane. ALEX stated that they would have HY GODFREY take [redacted] luggage to the airport. ALEX said that in fact HY GODFREY would just as soon take you to the airport. [redacted] replied that she would just as soon take the airport bus right from her place of employment, [redacted] because it is no trouble for her. ALEX told [redacted] that HY would meet her at the American Airlines counter but later changed this and stated she better meet him outside where the buses park because HY is known inside. [redacted] and ALEX then discussed whether they could make the 5:00 o'clock plane out of Chicago but [redacted] stated that she would then have to get off early and her employer would then know that she was going out of town. ALEX concluded by saying that "We'll get the 6:00 o'clock jet that's the best one and by the time you get there its time to go to bed any way." It is apparent from the above conversation that ALEX and [redacted] are planning to leave for their weekend trip to New York on the 6:00 o'clock plane on 4/20/62.

ALEX and [redacted] then entered into a discussion where they were going to place the clock in the apartment without making the living room look overdecorated.

Informant further advised on 4/20/62 that ALEX made a phone call from his apartment to his chauffeur, NATHAN LADON and requested LADON to pick him up at the Airloft at a specified time. It is to be noted that Airloft is a code name used by ALEX when refering to his apartment. b6 b7C

CG 6502-C* advised on 4/21/62 that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a discussion again concerning the delivery date for the wig and carrier that [redacted] had ordered a few months ago and has not yet been received. It is to be noted that [redacted] has previously mentioned to ALEX that the wig was to cost about $200 and was to be imported from Europe.

Informant further advised on 4/21/62 that ALEX was overheard on the house phone mentioning to the garage attendant to get the Taylor Thunderbird ready. In regard to the Thunderbird mentioned by ALEX, it is to be noted that he recently purchased a new Thunderbird convertible from Mid-State Motors and is keeping it at his apartment garage. Subsequent check of the registration on this Thunderbird disclosed that it is registered in the name of GUS ALEX at 4246 North Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. It is to be noted that this address is the address of Vogel Enterprises, Ajax Phonograph Company, Apex Amusement Company and Deluxe Cigarette Inc. VOGEL is a close friend of ALEX and is on VOGEL's payroll for $26,00 a year. ALEX is seldom either at Ajax Phonograph Company and any other Vogel Enterprises and it is believed that this is merely a front so that ALEX can cover some of his illegal income.

CG 6502-C* further advised that EDDIE VOGEL and NATHAN BUTCH LADON also frequented ALEX's apartment on that date. VOGEL mentioned that he had given something to ALEX which was similar to an outfit given him by ALEX. VOGEL stated that he bought the present for ALEX at Garry Rothchild and ALEX told him his present for VOGEL was bought at [illegible]elAno's. They were apparently discussing some type of wearing apparel.

Informant advised further that ALEX was attempting to persuade VOGEL to get a smaller apartment stating that he, VOGEL, didn't need the large apartment which he now has.

Informant further advised that VOGEL told ALEX that he, VOGEL, had met [redacted] and that [redacted] had talked to [redacted] Informant could not furnish the details concerning [redacted] talking to [redacted] It is to be noted that [redacted] is in a [redacted] Chicago, where [redacted] EDDIE VOGEL.

b7C

Informant further advised that NATHAN LADON attempted to call [redacted] from ALEX's apartment in an attempt to have [redacted] go to dinner with VOGEL and ALEX that evening, however, informant stated that [redacted] informed LADON that she had work to do that night and could not make the engagement. ALEX and LADON then proceeded in joshing VOGEL that [redacted] was giving him the brush because she didn't want to go out with him that evening.

Informant further advised on 4/21/62 that ALEX SAID since [redacted] was not accompaning VOGEL for dinner that evening, he, VOGEL, should go to the Pit for dinner because no one knows him there.

Informant further advised on 4/21/62 that after VOGEL and LADON left the apartment of ALEX, ALEX and [redacted] entered into a discussion concerning their plans for their trip to New York. ALEX told [redacted] that he wanted her to take a plane that leaves at either 1, 5, 7, or 8 o'clock. [redacted] stated that she would like to get the 5 o'clock flight, but ALEX told her that she couldn't possibly get the 5 o'clock flight without taking off early from work and then her employer would know she is going out of town. ALEX told [redacted] that he definitely did not want her employer to know that she was going out of town.

CG 6502-C* advised on 4/23/62 that ALEX mentioned to [redacted] that he should have worn his big diamond yesterday. [redacted] stated that it would have been nice and he should have done it. ALEX also mentioned to [redacted] that he was not going to drink anything for about a week because he wanted to take some weight off.

b7C

Informant further advised on 4/23/62 that after ALEX read an article in the Chicago Tribune of 4/23/62, he became very irritated and stated "If they didn't open their big mouth, it wouldn't be in there. All about me too. If any newspaperman approaches you, walk away from him." [redacted] replied, "I don't talk to nobody, why should I talk to a newspaperman. Oh, come on, don't be so disturbed about that article". ALEX is unquestionably discussing an article which appeared in the Chicago Tribune on 4/23/62 regarding the celebration of the 21st Wedding Anniversary of WILLIAM VOGEL, brother of EDDIE VOGEL. The article stated that ALEX arranged the affair, as being in attendance, and with a number of other Chicago hoodlums.

Informant further advised on 4/23/62 that ALEX made a phone call to his chauffeur NATHAN LADON who was downstairs at Fritzel's at the time of the call. It is apparent that LADON, ALEX and other Chicago hoodlums are still frequenting Fritzel's Restaurant where they have in the past.

Informant further advised on 4/23/62 that [redacted] was attempting to persuade ALEX to leave her do the cleaning of the apartment rather than hire the maid two times a week because she doesn't do a good job anyway and she has to stay there in the apartment until she finishes so she might as well do it herself. It is to be noted that ALEX never leaves anyone alone in the apartment and when anyone is doing any work either he or someone else he designates is there at all times.

Informant advised on 4/24/62 that ALEX and [redacted] entered into a discussion concerning their trip to New York. From the conversation, informant got the impression that [redacted] was not going to New York as originally planned and that ALEX was now going alone. Informant based this on the fact that [redacted] stated "You go ahead just come back; I'll tell the boss that I don't need the day off. If you go today, what time will you leave? I'll cancel my reservations." ALEX replied "Can you call the reservations off here?" [redacted] answered "Yes, then they will teletype and cancel it and send me my Guarantee back. Are you going to drive to the airport or leave the car at home?"

Latter on the morning of 4/24/62 the informant advised that ALEX's chauffeur NATHAN LADON appeared at ALEX's apartment, and they engaged in a whispered conversation which could not be overheard by informant.

On 4/25/62 the informant advised that the only person he overheard in ALEX's apartment was [redacted] and it was apparent to him that ALEX had left by himself on his trip to New York.

Informant advised on 4/26/62 ALEX and [redacted] was again here in his apartment late that night. [redacted] told ALEX that she was up every morning early while he was away and had so much time she didn't know what to do with herself. Informant advised that ALEX did not discuss where he had been, but only mentioned "The first night I was away I read a book for about an hour and then fell asleep."

WEEKLY SUMMARY

Re my airtel dated 4/30/62.

CG 6502-C* advised on 4/28/62 that EDWARD VOGEL and NATHAN "BUTCH" LADON, chauffeur for GUS ALEX and VOGEL, visited ALEX' apartment on that date. Also in attendance was ALEX' [redacted] ALEX mentioned to [redacted] that he had gotten some champagne splits for her while he was away. Since informant previously advised that ALEX had planned a trip to New York, it is apparent ALEX secured this champagne for [redacted] while in New York. b6 b7C

On 4/28/62, informant further advised that ALEX told [redacted] to "Put the gloves on and put that merchandise on." [redacted] "I'll show you something BUTCH that you've never seen in your life." [redacted] apparently put on a new coat which ALEX had recently bought for her and modeled it for LADON and VOGEL. ALEX asked VOGEL how much he thought that he paid for that merchandise but VOGEL would not venture a guess. When ALEX would not tell him how much he paid for the coat, VOGEL replied "I'll find out from my man [redacted]" ALEX replied "He hasn't got anything like that. This is a Paris creation, pal." VOGEL replied "I don't care if it cost $5,000, what difference does it make, it's how it looks."

Informant further advised on 4/28/62 that VOGEL encouraged [redacted] to call [redacted] VOGEL) and ask her if she could borrow her sewing machine and while she was on the phone to also ask her if she would join them for dinner that evening. Informant advised that [redacted] did call [redacted] and she agreed to accompany the group to dinner that evening at the Cafe de Paris located in the Park Dearborn Hotel. ALEX later called [redacted] at the Cafe de Paris and made reservations for he and [redacted] VOGEL and [redacted] and LADON for that evening. It is to be noted that [redacted] the Cafe de Paris. When previously interviewed by Bureau Agents, he acknowledged knowing ALEX and the fact that ALEX dines there occasionally.

Informant further advised on 4/28/62 that ALEX commented to VOGEL that he made some type of purchase in New York and asked the proprietor of the shop not to put it on the books. Informant did not know any further details concerning this purchase by ALEX except that ALEX was apprehensive about whether he could trust the proprietor where he made the purchase.

Informant further advised on 4/28/62 that ALEX asked VOGEL who [redacted] VOGEL replied [redacted] ALEX replied that he thought EDDIE had bought it but VOGEL replied "No someone had bought it [redacted] It is not known by informant whether ALEX was referring to a diamond or to a business establishment when he mentioned [redacted] is unknown to this office at this time. ALEX may have been referring to an expensive diamond bracelet which VOGEL had in his possession several weeks ago and was anticipating buying at that time.

Informant further advised on 4/28/62 that VOGEL mentioned to ALEX that he did not need LADON to chauffeur for him but ALEX replied that since you are not married who would you associate with in the evenings because all the other people are married. VOGEL replied "You know who likes to have me around, the guys at the airliner." VOGEL also replied that he could associate with his brother, WILLIAM VOGEL.

Informant further advised that ALEX told VOGEL "I hope BUTCH is never questioned because you can never tell what he is liable to say." However, ALEX added "Well he talked to ROEMER, didn't he?" VOGEL replied "Yeah." VOGEL then stated "You can't bribe those kind of people." It is apparent from the above conversation that ALEX and VOGEL are concerned if NATHAN "BUTCH" LADON is ever called upon to testify since they do not know what he may say. ROEMER referred to above is SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER of this office who interviewed LADON in the past.

Informant further advised on 4/28/62 that LADON mentioned to VOGEL and ALEX "He said that I'm going to call the photographers if you don't get EDDIE over here." ALEX replied that "That's the true story of the Tribune all right" and VOGEL replied "He's nothing, you're right." It's apparent that LADON, ALEX, and VOGEL are discussing a recent article which appeared in the "Chicago Tribune" which was [redacted]. This article covered an interview with VOGEL [redacted] in regard to a celebration which was held by VOGEL for his brother, WILLIAM VOGEL, who was celebrating his 25th wedding anniversary.

Informant further advised on 4/28/62 that ALEX mentioned to VOGEL "Your man called me today. He was real familiar and said he had just called to let him know that he was in town. I got something for you, he said, and asked will you be at [redacted] tomorrow." Informant stated that ALEX received this call from VOGEL's friend while visiting his, ALEX', mother. In the same conversation informant advised that ALEX mentioned a person by the name of MICKEY. It is possible that the MICKEY referred to by ALEX is MICKEY FARR, former bookmaker and now believed to be residing in California and who is a very close friend of VOGEL. From information received in the past VOGEL has lent FARR large sums of money. When ALEX was questioning VOGEL on the money which he had lent FARR in the past, VOGEL replied "I paid a stool pigeon not to stool." Informant did not know the reason for VOGEL's comment, but it is possible that VOGEL was referring to FARR as a stool pigeon. He may have gotten this impression when MURRAY HUMPHREYS, Chicago top hoodlum, was interviewed in the past and when questioned concerning a possible trip to Wales, the interviewing Agent suggested that this information may have come from MICKEY FARR. This may have gotten back to VOGEL and VOGEL since that time is under the impression that FARR is a stool pigeon for the FBI.

b7C

Informant further advised on 4/28/62 that ALEX mentioned to VOGEL that he would like to buy a certain apartment building with 24 apartments and was located in the slum districts of Chicago and if he sold it back to the City of Chicago he could make a good profit on it. ALEX stated "I got Alderman LEWIS going for me to juice it up a little for me." ALEX is undoubtedly referring to BENJAMIN F. LEWIS, who is the Negro Alderman of the 24th Ward, Chicago, which ward covers an area where numerous buildings are being torn down in furtherance of Chicago's urban redevelopment program.

Informant concluded by stating on 4/28/62 ALEX made plans to attend a breakfast at VOGEL's apartment at 320 Oakdale the following day, 4/29/62. In attendance at the breakfast would be [redacted]

Informant advised on 4/30/62 that ALEX mentioned to [redacted] that he wanted her to use the banking facilities at a savings bank on Michigan Avenue because it was closer to [redacted] b6 b7C

Informant advised that ALEX and [redacted] were in conversation at ALEX' apartment on the mornings of 5/1, 5/2, and 5/3/62 but nothing of pertinence was discussed.

AIRTEL AIR MAIL

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI (92-3182)

FROM: SAC, CHICAGO (92-350-SUB L)

SUBJECT: GUS ALEX, aka
AR

WEEKLY SUMMARY

Re Chicago airtel, 5/7/62.

CG 0502-C* on 5/4/62 advised that GUS ALEX was in contact with [redacted] in ALEX' Chicago apartment. ALEX indicated to [redacted] that he is planning to leave Chicago next week with EDWARD VOGEL for approximately three days. ALEX indicated that he was going West and gave no further details concerning his proposed trip.

On 5/5/62, CG 0502-C* advised that GUS ALEX was in his apartment watching the Kentucky Derby on television. A short time later [redacted] entered ALEX' apartment after which Chicago top hoodlum EDWARD VOGEL and his [redacted] also entered. ALEX said to VOGEL that he had made dinner reservations at the Cafe de Paris and invited VOGEL and [redacted] to be his guests this evening for dinner. [redacted] and VOGEL agreed to join ALEX and he told them that they were dining at approximately 6:45 p.m. b6 b7C

[redacted] then complained to EDWARD VOGEL for not calling her last night and repeatedly asked VOGEL why he had not called. VOGEL told her that he was mad and that he gets mad easily and that this was the reason for his not calling. [redacted] again asked VOGEL why he didn't call on her at her apartment. VOGEL said that he thought that her house was being watched from across the street all night and he did not want to be caught walking to and from the house. VOGEL gave no indication as to whom he thought was watching [redacted] house.

ALEX then said that [redacted] had a new wig and a box to carry it in and had her display it to VOGEL and [redacted]

b7C

ALEX said that he lost $45.00 on the Kentucky Derby and that he had played across the board Sunset Rise, Admiral Voyage and Green Hornet. ALEX told VOGEL that he had told NATHAN LADON that he and VOGEL would give him $75.00 apiece toward LADON's rent; however, this money would be given to LADON's [redacted] so that they would know that this money would be applied for the rent.

At this point, NATHAN LADON enters and ALEX asks LADON why he can't get along on the salary he is now making. LADON asks to be left alone and said that he did not want to hear any more about money. ALEX asks LADON if his rent was paid this month and LADON said no.

VOGEL told the group that he got drunk at the Singapore Night Club last night and made a fool of himself.

ALEX told the group that since BUTCH LADON recently had an accident in a car leased from the Executive Auto Leasing Company that EDWARD VOGEL should pay for it since LADON is the chauffeur for VOGEL. The damage is approximately $128.00 and VOGEL does not feel responsible to pay this amount since LADON had the accident. ALEX indicated to VOGEL that this car was VOGEL's to which VOGEL said it was not his since he had just helped LADON to pay for it.

ALEX tells VOGEL that he, VOGEL, has something that he would like to have which apparently concerns some jewelry. VOGEL appeared to be angry and accused LADON of talking too much which LADON denied. LADON said that VOGEL has a jeweler who can give him a good appraisal value of this jewelry. However, VOGEL indicated that this jeweler is "no good" since he is not impressed with the appraisal value. ALEX indicated to VOGEL that the bracelet in question has approximately $450.00 worth of platinum; however, the jeweler does not believe this. LADON then leaves ALEX' apartment with [redacted] and indicated that he would drive her to her place.

On 5/7/62, CG 6502-C* advised that GUS ALEX and [redacted] had a brief conversation in ALEX' apartment; however, nothing pertinent was learned at this time.

On 5/8/62, informant advised that GUS ALEX and [redacted] were in coversation at ALEX' apartment. [redacted] told ALEX that she was somewhat puzzled why the Government has conducted considerable investigation into [redacted] whereas they had not bothered her. ALEX told her not to brag about it and [redacted] said that the reason for this was apparently because she, [redacted] was not a citizen of this country and that she will undoubtedly be denied her citizenship.

b7C

ALEX told [redacted] that SAM and MAE TAYLOR were coming in this week and told [redacted] to take some of her things over to her place. SAM TAYLOR is the brother of GUS ALEX, who also shares ALEX' apartment on occasion.

On 5/9/62, informant advised that GUS ALEX, NATHAN LADON, [redacted] were all in ALEX' apartment reviewing pictures recently taken by ALEX and [redacted] ALEX indicated that one of the pictures was of CHARLIE POSTL while playing cards. POSTL is the owner of Postl's Health Club which is frequented by GUS ALEX and EDWARD VOGEL on practically a daily basis. ALEX said that he remembered going to Postl's and taking this picture of POSTL.

On 5/10/62, informant advised that GUS ALEX was again in contact with [redacted] tells ALEX that she enjoys being in his company and even though she is a free girl and not married to ALEX she could date with others, however, would rather be with ALEX.

ALEX indicated to [redacted] that EDDIE VOGEL has been deducting withholding taxes from LADON's salary; however, LADON does not care for this procedure and wants VOGEL to pay his withholding taxes without deducting it from his salary.

[redacted] asked where he was going ALEX commented, "I am going to play cards." [redacted] remarked, "Brother, isn't that something to get all dressed up just to play cards."

CG 6502-C* advised on 5/22/62 that ALEX became angry with [redacted] because she had mentioned to him that someone who was [redacted] had given her a gift and apparently this made ALEX mad and he questioned her in detail regarding the identity of this person. The informant said that the person was only a [redacted] and the gift was given to [redacted] because she was especially nice to this person during her [redacted]

The informant further advised on that date that ALEX mentioned to [redacted] that whenever they have a card game and rent a room, each one of the players invites a guest of his own and they split up the cost of the room rental and the cost of the refreshments. [redacted] asked ALEX if VOGEL ever picked up the check and ALEX commented, "No, he doesn't."

The informant further advised that ALEX mentioned to [redacted] that his car dealer had called him and informed him that the insurance company had cancelled his car insurance. ALEX mentioned that every time he made out a check, "the FBI finds out about it". [redacted] commented, "yes, and then they went right to the insurance company. Well, what's wrong with you having car insurance as long as you are paying for it." ALEX commented, "they check on you, don't you understand. They go through police files, newspaper articles and everything and then they find out I'm a bad risk and they won't insure me."

ALEX commented to [redacted] on 5/22/62, according to the informant, that he knew CARL DRAKE who recently was the owner of the Swinging Door, a Rush Street night club, until he died of a heart attack recently.

The informant further advised on 5/22/62 that an employee of [redacted] appeared at ALEX's apartment on 5/22/62 and apparently [redacted] ALEX. This [redacted] entered into a discussion with ALEX concerning how poor business was at [redacted] and that [redacted] is in bad financial straits. This person stated that since a lot of ALEX's associates are hard hit because gambling is down, [redacted] is hurting because that type of business was about 25 per cent of [redacted] volume. This employee of [redacted] commented to ALEX that he has not had a raise for seven years, and that this was the third week that [redacted] was behind in paying him. ALEX commented to the [redacted] that the insurance company had cancelled his insurance and stated, "if worse comes to worse I'll put the car in somebody's name, that's all. But I'll only do that as a last resort." The informant further advised that the unknown employee of [redacted] s mentioned to ALEX that [redacted] Henry's Drive-In restaurants was in on 5/19/62 and ordered [redacted] He said that this person originally came in only [redacted] told him that he needed the work now so he ordered the [redacted] now to be delivered later.

On the afternoon of 5/23/62, SAs [redacted] and [redacted] interviewed [redacted] at her place of employment, [redacted] CG 6502-C* advised that at about 6 p.m. that same evening, [redacted] informed ALEX, in detail, the results of her interviews with the above named Agents. [redacted] told ALEX that at about three o'clock or shortly after, she received a call from Mr. [redacted] to come down to his office. [redacted] told ALEX that when she went down to [redacted] office, it was the last thing in her mind that she was going to be interviewed by FBI Agents and as a result, it was a complete surprise to her when she got down to [redacted] office and [redacted] told her that two gentlemen would like to talk to her. She told ALEX that she immediately recognized Mr. [redacted] because she had seen him before, but she did not know the other Agent who identified himself as [redacted] told ALEX that the Agents showed her their credentials and asked her to sit down and that in order to avoid an incident, she sat down even though she did not want to. She told ALEX that she told the Agents to see her attorney, Miss [redacted] ALEX told [redacted] "As soon as you said to see Miss [redacted], you should have gotten up and walked out." [redacted] stated that when she told Miss [redacted] Miss [redacted] told her that she did the best she could under the circumstances and it was better that she sat down and talked to the Agents rather than walking out on them. [redacted] stated that the Agents knew that she and ALEX had been traveling in Europe together on vacations for the past two or three years. [redacted] also stated that the Agents knew that ALEX and her frequently associated with [redacted] and EDDIE VOGEL. She said that they also know that EDDIE VOGEL and [redacted] were recently in Florida together for a vacation, and that VOGEL also has a girl friend in California. b6 b7C

[redacted] also told ALEX that the Agents knew that she stayed at ALEX's apartment a number of times because they see her go in the apartment building in the evenings and does not come out again until the next morning. She told ALEX that they asked her if she was married to ALEX, but she told ALEX that she told the Agents to see her attorney and would not answer any questions. [redacted] told ALEX that she told Mr. [redacted] that she did not appreciate the Agents coming to her place of employment because she worked hard to get the position that she had, and that she would like to keep it and that she was supporting herself. ALEX asked [redacted] "What did they say to that?" [redacted] stated that they told her that Mr. [redacted] did not know the reason that they were talking to her. ALEX asked [redacted] "What did they say about your citizenship?" [redacted] stated that they were aware that she would soon be able to apply for naturalization to become a citizen, and that the Agents told her that they wanted to help her, and ALEX replied with an obscene word. [redacted] told ALEX that after she left the interview with the Agents, she immediately called her attorney, Miss [redacted] stated that she discussed with Miss [redacted] whether they could prove that she was committing adultery with ALEX, and she told ALEX that Miss [redacted] informed her that she had nothing to worry about. [redacted] was concerned whether the doorman or the desk man at ALEX's apartment would be able to testify against her on a charge of adultery, and Miss [redacted] told her that they would not. She said that Miss [redacted] told her that the only thing they could do was to hold up her citizenship, but they could not do that for ever unless they could prove that she was doing something wrong. Miss [redacted] told [redacted] according to the informant, that she would call the Agents and arrange for an interview between [redacted] and the Agents in Miss [redacted] presence. [redacted] told ALEX that she thought this was a good idea, and ALEX agreed with her. ALEX told [redacted] that the investigators have a job to do; however, "he has seen many, many, many occasions where people walk away from the investigators and the lawyers then call the investigators up to come in and they don't come in." ALEX said, "I want her to pick them apart. You ought to be ashamed of yourself, that girl don't know nothing about this man's business or what little she knows it's this and that and that's all there is to it." [redacted] stated, according to the informant, that the Agents kept saying that they wanted to know about her background, and ALEX commented, "What do they care about your background." [redacted] stated, according to the informant, that Miss [redacted] told her "That all the Agents wanted to do was to fire her up so that she would stand up and talk and maybe blab out something." ALEX agreed with this comment of [redacted] stating that "I don't mean you would do that but I seen that happen in many other cases, they get you mad and then boom, boom, boom, and they got you."

The informant further advised that [redacted] told ALEX that the Agents "don't believe that you are working for VOGEL and believe that it's just a cover." ALEX replied, "Where am I at? Why don't they come with me every morning when I go there?" [redacted] stated, "You're never there, that's what they said. They never see you there." ALEX commented "What do they think VOGEL is paying me for?" ALEX said "that he was considering asking Miss [redacted] to write to Washington". The above reference made by ALEX was concerning the interview with [redacted] by the Agents.

The informant further advised that [redacted] told ALEX that they considered him "the biggest hoodlum in Chicago". ALEX replied, "Boy, they really painted me black, didn't they." [redacted] stated, "doesn't that make you feel good? that title?" ALEX replied, "No, I'll pay to give me Butcher's title." BUTCH LADON is chauffeur for ALEX. ALEX further stated, "It's too bad you can't answer and tell them is that all the Government has got to do is spend money following me, and that after they did follow me what did they find out." ALEX commented to [redacted] that he was worried and [redacted] replied, "Don't worry about this. I was worried at first but I'm not now." ALEX said, "I'm going to tell EDDIE about what they said about he and [redacted] That interview will probably ruin your job there." [redacted] replied, "I thought about that when I was sitting there, but now I don't care. If I lose my job, I can get a job somewhere else. I'm a good worker."

b7C

CG 6502-C* advised on 5/24/62 that [redacted] and ALEX entered into a discussion concerning [redacted] interview with FBI Agents and [redacted] said, "that the agents told her that they couldn't talk to anyone here because she don't know anybody here." [redacted] stated, "This was true because she don't know anybody here and they never see me go anyplace with anybody." [redacted] said, "They said they had nothing personal against me, but it was because of my association with you who they're interested in." ALEX asked her if they said anything about her mother and about her coming here to visit, and [redacted] stated that they did not mention her mother.

WEEKLY SUMMARY

Re Chicago airtel 5/23/62.

CG C502-C* advised on 5/25/62, that GUS ALEX and [redacted] entered into a conversation concerning a possible meeting together the coming Sunday with EDDIE VOGEL. ALEX told [redacted] that EDDIE VOGEL would be there for sure and that he might possibly [redacted] expressed her opinion that VOGEL should make up his mind whether [redacted] or not and if [redacted] VOGEL, then [redacted] ALEX. Informant did not know the nature, location or purpose of the meeting with VOGEL on the coming Sunday.

CG C502-C* further advised on 5/25/62, that ALEX commented to [redacted] that she should "give your name, that you are officially divorced, and anything else have her stop you from answering" and [redacted] replied, "You want them to know that I am legally divorced right?" b6 b7C

The above comments by ALEX and [redacted] are in regard to the anticipated interview of [redacted] in the company of her attorney, Miss [redacted] by FBI Agents. It is apparent that ALEX does not want [redacted] to answer any questions concerning himself.

CG C502-C* further advised on 5/25/62, that [redacted] mentioned to ALEX that she had gotten a letter from her mother and her mother told her that she could pick up her visa as soon as she gets her vaccination. She told ALEX that her mother does not feel too good at the present time and that her doctor told her not to get the vaccination until she felt better. She told ALEX that as soon as she gets the vaccination she was to take it to the Consulate and she could then pick up her visa.

CG C502-C* further advised on 5/25/62, that ALEX commented to [redacted] "I was determined I was going away for about 2 days and get some fun and I didn't know where to go where I could get some peace until I thought of the Bahamas. I went to get a travel book and was looking at Bermuda and the Caribbean and I found out that it only takes an hour and a half from New York to Bermuda. If I go, I would like to take someone with me but I don't know who yet. I was thinking that since it is only one and a half hours to Bermuda, I could leave on Tuesday and come back on Friday." [redacted] replied, "This coming week?" "I'm off Wednesday and I wouldn't know what to do with myself that day if you were gone. I could drive out to the country by myself. I have to go to see Miss [redacted] on Tuesday. It would be nice if you could get some sun." ALEX replied and said, "Since you are off this Wednesday, I'll think it over and let you know." b6 b7C Informant advised on 5/29/62, that [redacted] inquired of ALEX what he intended to do on Memorial Day and if his plans included her. She said that otherwise she would have nothing to do but sit up in the apartment all day.

CG C502-C* further advised on 5/29/62, that "the Immigration Office has the information on file that I am legally divorced", remarked [redacted] ALEX replied, "Yes, they can get all the information from Immigration and Naturalization Service if they want, but they would rather embarrass you by getting it from you".

CG 92-350, Sub L

Informant further advised on 5/20/02, that ALEX cautioned [redacted] that she should be very careful of what she said today. [redacted] replied, "I have no intention of saying anything to those men. If Miss [redacted] wants me to say something she will tell me what to say." ALEX again cautioned her to be very careful. The above conversation is unquestionably in regard to the intended interview with [redacted] by FBI Agents in the presence of her attorney, Miss [redacted] which was tentatively scheduled for 5/20/02, but later postponed.
